BTF rules https://www.britishtriathlon.org/britain/documents/events/competition-rules/competition_rules.pdf

It is the athlete's responsibility to ensure you are in suitable health, fitness level and confidence with open water swimming, road riding and running to complete in a safe manner your race. Your bike equipment must be road worthy and safe.

Leading into the race under BTF rules it is each athlete's responsibility to know the course. Please take the time to read race info and familiarise yourself with key guidelines of the sport of triathlon.

Under BTF guidelines, if for any reason the water is unsafe to swim in, the swim discipline is changed to a run. Open water swim events only, would have a change of date.

If for safety reasons the event cannot take place, the event will be postponed to a suitable date in the future and all entries carried over in full, however no refunds can be made if a date is set for a future event.
